

Comprehensive and Accurate DEGREE DAY REPORT for 6 zones in CT

The Connecticut Weather Center is the official Climatological Station for Danbury. We have a data-collecting network over the state of Connecticut. Each day, when the data comes into our office, the highs and lows are computed to determine degree-days in each of our six zones. We compile these daily totals along with weekly, monthly, and seasonal totals. This degree-day report will be faxed or e-mailed to your office DAILY. If you view the report, you will see, we also compare the current season with normal and provide you with a forecast for the week ahead.

The cost for this service is less than 60 cents per day!

STORM FORCE available for immediate Warnings

Get the latest Weather Warnings delivered via cell phone FOR YOUR SPECIFIC TOWN- unlike any other service—Storm Force will alert you via a text message with specific times and information about a storm that WILL affect your town.
